About Dr. Hyun Jin Preston Moon

Dr. Hyun Jin Preston Moon is the founder and chairman of the Global Peace Foundation (GPF), established in 2009 and currently active in 24 countries. Working across lines of identity - from culture, ethnicity, religion, and beyond – GPF works to foster the moral, innovative leadership necessary to resolve the most pressing issues in our world today.

Dr. Moon's disciplined focus on a common vision, universal principles and shared values guides GPF in building innovative models of peace, development and a global network of multi-sectoral partners. Even while addressing local issues, numerous regional and international level conventions, forums and programs, enables the organization to garner lessons and best practices for a global community.

Dr. Moon has a lifelong passion for empowering young leaders, particularly in emerging countries. He founded Service For Peace in 2002 to provide international service learning opportunities for youth of diverse backgrounds who work together to address urgent social needs. Service For Peace is now established in 27 nations and has special consultative status with the United Nations.

Dr. Moon is a graduate of Columbia University, majoring in history, and holds a Master of Business Administration from Harvard Business School. He is a graduate of the Unification Theological Seminary, with a Masters in Religious Education and he has also received an honorary doctorate from Sun Moon University in Korea. An accomplished horseman, he was a member of the Korean Equestrian Team in the 1988 Seoul Olympics and the 1992 Barcelona Olympics.

He is the proud father of nine children with his wife, a Julliard-trained pianist, who serves as chairwoman of Global Peace Women, the women's division of Global Peace Foundation.
